Clear Sight IT Decision Maker

Colin Ball : 2-3 minutes : 5/29/2024

Clear Sight IT Decision Maker (previously known as eAPM) is an approach powered by a unique data visualization, analysis & decisioning platform. Coupled with our advisory and execution expertise, it brings the power of data and a structured approach to drive IT transformation decisions, empowering our clients to shape the future of their IT, serving to position Capgemini as a trusted transformation partner.

By providing a holistic view of IT ecosystems and benchmark its performance across 13 sectors to identify opportunities for transformative improvements, we empower CxOs to rise to the pressures of efficiency, effectiveness, and sustainability. Our goal is to help optimize IT investments and drive value from digital and sustainability initiatives.

You can access the latest case studies, sales decks, proposal & pricing templates, training materials and much more at the Clear Sight IT Decision Maker community in Teams.
